A youth social forum celebrating creative resistance
Hosted by OSSTF District 12 HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE

Invitation to participate

You and your students are invited to participate in a one-day student social forum being hosted by OSSTF District 12 Human Rights Committee

Why:

- ❖ Celebrating:
 - Celebrating the extensive, creative, and vibrant human rights/social justice work being done across the city
- ❖ Sharing:
 - Gathering Toronto-based students, teachers, unionists, artists and human rights & social justice community activists to learn from one another
- ❖ Networking:
 - Creating a network of student and teacher activists from across the city that is connected to the larger activist community in Toronto
- ❖ Honoring:
 - Presenting the Camille Natale Awards to recognize outstanding Human Rights/Social Justice activism by TDSB students

What:

- ❖ A one-day gathering to bring together up to 300 student and educator activists from across the city with members of the broader activist community in Toronto

Where and When:

- ❖ May 9th, OISE, 252 Bloor St W, 8:30 am to 3:30 pm

Who:

- ❖ Students and teachers from across the TDSB who have a personal commitment to human rights and social justice and who want to meet and share experiences with others both inside and outside the school system who feel the same way
