ABOUT MARK

Mark Kissel has taught secondary and adult students guidance, music, and geography for close to twenty years in the Toronto District School Board.

He also taught at Newtonbrook SS, CW Jefferys CI, and Parkdale CI. All these experiences have given Mark a broad understanding of different needs of members across the city.

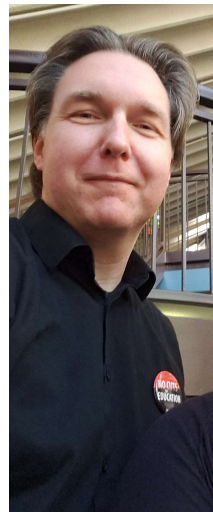

Before he started with the TDSB, Mark served as an educational lobbyist, policy writer, and manager, first as Vice-President of Education with the University Students' Council at Western University, then in Ottawa as National Director of the Canadian Alliance of Student Associations.

In his spare time, Mark is a professional musician. He also enjoys curling, biking, and running, and is an avid reader and writer.

Most importantly, Mark is husband and partner with Tiffany, and father to Zackary, Claire and Chloe.
